

Renton Technical College

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Renton Technical College. We are extremely proud of the high quality of our entire staff. We have been able to develop this tradition because we take special care in selecting people to join us. Here are a few words about our application and selection process, including a timeline and some helpful hints to get you started. Best of luck in your career search.

Sincerely,

Glenda Mullowney
Human Resources Director

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants must apply for specific positions as they open. We do not hold resumes in anticipation of openings. Jobs are normally posted for ten days. Other positions may be "open until filled." In either case, it is important that you submit all the application material as soon as possible. The application will include: a RTC employment application, an application supplement, and a confidential affirmative action questionnaire. (Completing the affirmative action questionnaire is optional, however, it helps the Human Resources Office track the type of applicants we receive and where you learned of the opening. It is truly appreciated!)

Only complete applications will be reviewed by the screening committee. Candidates selected for interviews will be contacted during the day by telephone, so be sure that your daytime and message phone numbers are current.

Final selection will be based upon the criteria for the position we have open and the needs of the college. This set of criteria will be reviewed against the information you provide. Other screening items could include: completing questions on an application insert, a timed exercise, an interview, and reference checks.

TIMELINE

Unless the job is advertised as "open until filled," our review begins after the position has closed. We often receive many, many applications for a single position. And, although we try to work as quickly as possible, it can take us a few weeks to review all the applications we receive. It could be four weeks before we conduct interviews, and two to three months before a position is filled. All applicants will be notified of the outcome of positions for which they have applied.

HELPFUL HINTS

In addition to the hints we have already given, here are some more which are very important to successfully applying for any opening. Pay careful attention when completing the application. Furnish all the requested information. Any information about your training and experience which you wish to have considered needs to be reflected in your application package.

JOB LINE

Current openings are listed on RTC's job line. The job line is available twenty-four hours a day, and the number is (425) 235-2354. Our telecommunication device for the deaf (TTY) number is (425) 235-2359.

Affirmative Action Definitions

American Indian or Alaskan Native.

A person with origins in any of the original peoples of North America and who maintains cultural identification through documented tribal affiliation or community recognition.

Asian or Pacific Islander.

A person with origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands. For example, China, Japan, Korea, Pakistan, the Philippine Republic, and Samoa.

Black/African-American.

A person with origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.

Hispanic.

A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish culture or origin regardless of race. For example, persons from Brazil, Guyana, or Surinam would be classified according to their race and would not necessarily be included in the Hispanic category. This category does not include persons from Portugal, who should be classified according to race.

White/Caucasian.

A person with origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East.

Disabilities.

For Affirmative Action purposes, people with disabilities are persons with a permanent physical, mental, or sensory impairment, which substantially limits one or more major life activities. Physical, mental, or sensory impairment means: (a) any physiological or neurological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the body systems or functions; or (b) any mental or psychological disorders such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, or any specific learning disability. The impairment must be material rather than slight, and permanent in that it is seldom fully corrected by medical replacement, therapy, or surgical means.

Disabled veteran.

A person entitled to disability compensation under laws administered by the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs for disability rated at 30 percent or more, or a person whose discharge or release from active duty was for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.

Vietnam-era veteran.

A person who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975, and was discharged or released from duty with other than a dishonorable discharge. Also, veterans who served in the Republic of Vietnam between February 28, 1961 and May 7, 1975.
